Vol. 142

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 15, 1996

No. 47

Senate

The Senate met at 10 a.m., and was called to order by the Honorable THAD COCHRAN, a Senator from the State of Mississippi.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we return to the work of the Senate this morning with our hearts still at half-mast. We share a profound grief over the tragic and untimely death of Secretary of Commerce Ron Brown. Our grief is mingled with the acute pain of loss for our Nation, the President, the President's Cabinet, and the Democratic Party. We ask You to continue to comfort and strengthen the Secretary's family with the assurance of eternal life. Our hearts also are heavy with the memory of the deaths of members of staff and the leading business leaders who were with the Secretary on his crucial mission of rehabilitation.

So, Lord, as we resume our responsibilities today, give us a renewed sense of the shortness of time and the length of eternity. Help us to live this day to the fullest as if it were our last day. May we never take for granted the gift of life or the privilege of serving You by giving our best to the tasks and challenges we will face today. Grant us Your grace to endure, Your wisdom to make creative decisions, and Your power to offset the pressures of the demanding life we are called to live. God, bless America. In the Lord's name. Amen.
